

The following is the program for the plenary sessions of the Twelfth National Conference, identifying confirmed participants. As additional confirmations are received, this program will be updated at this website.

“The Community Benefits of Family Practice Training”

Sunday, April 8, 2001

“The Life Work of F. Marian Bishop, Ph.D., MSPH”

6:30 AM - 8:10 AM: Working Breakfasts in Preassigned Groups
Islandia Bar and Grill

8:25 AM - 11:50 AM: Plenary Session Room to be Announced

Session Moderator: (8:25 AM - 10 AM)

William A. Norcross, MD, MPH, UC San Diego Division of Family Medicine
“A Welcome to San Diego”

“The Community Benefits of Family Practice: Introduction to the Conference Theme” 8:30-9:00

Mark E. Clasen, MD, Ph.D., Wright State University, Dayton
Patrick T. Dowling, MD, MPH, University of California, Los Angeles

“Expanding the Scope of General Practice: F. Marian Bishop’s Core Contributions to the Discipline of Family Medicine” 9:00-10:00

David Sundwall, MD, American Clinical Laboratories Assn., Washington, DC
John E. Midtling, MD, MS, University of Illinois, Rockford
Cynthia Olsen, MD, Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio

MORNING BREAK 10:00-10:15

“Non-physicians Teaching Physicians: Marian Bishop as Pioneer and Warrior” 10:15-10:50

Jeffrey Ring, Ph.D., White Memorial Medical Center, East Los Angeles
Paul Juarez, Ph.D., Charles R. Drew University, Los Angeles

Discussion by the Conference as a Whole 10:50-11:00

Introduction of the Rodos Lecture

Charles Q. North, Indian Health Service, Albuquerque “Introducing the Rodos Lecturer” 11:00-11:05

The Sixth J. Jerry Rodos Lecture: 11:05-11:35

Marc E. Babitz, MD, MPH, University of Utah Department of Family and Preventive Medicine

Discussion by the Conference as a Whole 11:35-11:45

Monday, April 9, 2001

6:30 AM - 8:15 AM: Working Breakfasts in Preassigned Groups
Islandia Bar and Grill

“The Life Work of G. Gayle Stephens, MD”

Moderator:

Samuel C. Matheny, Chair,
University of Kentucky Department of Family Practice

“Seeking the Intellectual Bases of Family Medicine:
An Appraisal of the Life Work of G. Gayle Stephens” 8:30-9:20

Joseph E. Scherger, MD, MPH, University of California, Irvine
Hector Flores, MD, White Memorial Medical Center, Los Angeles
J. Jerry Rodos, DO, Midwestern University, Western Springs, Illinois
Larry Green, MD, Robert Graham Center, American Academy of Family Physicians, Washington, DC

“The Third Keystone Conference: Reflections” 9:20-9:50

G. Gayle Stephens, MD, Chair Emeritus, Department of Family Medicine,
University of Alabama, Birmingham

Discussion by Conference as a Whole 9:50-10:00

Break 10:00 -10:15

A panel commemorating the Tenth Anniversary of G. Gayle Stephens' Lecture to the Second National Conference on Primary Health Care Access, “Technology and the Metaphor of the ‘Big Red Bull That Eats and Eats and Never Gets Full’”

“Little Red Bulls: The Beneficial Effects of Technology to a Comprehensive Family Practice” 10:15-10:40

Joseph E. Scherger, MD, MPH, Moderator
Richard Clover, MD, University of Louisville, Louisville, Kentucky
Norman Kahn, MD, American Academy of Family Physicians, Leawood, Kansas

Induction of Fellows and Senior Fellows into the National Consortium on Community-Based Medical Education 10:40-11:00

Introduction of the Stephens Lecturer

John E. Midtling, MD, MS 11:00 - 11:05

The Eleventh G. Gayle Stephens Lecture

Larry Green, MD 11:05-11:30

Discussion by Conference as a Whole 11:30-11:50

RECEPTION 11:50-12:55 pm - Islandia Bar and Grill

Tuesday, April 10, 2001

6:30 AM - 8:15 AM: Working Breakfasts in Preassigned Groups
Islandia Bar and Grill

Moderator: To Be Announced

“The Community-Based Primary Care Team: A Study of the California Physician Assistant and Nurse Practitioner Workforce”
8:30-8:45

Virginia Fowkes, Division of Family and Community Medicine, Stanford University Medical Center

Discussion by Conference as a Whole 8:45-8:50

“Recognizing the Community Benefits of Family Practice: A Case Study of a Crisis in Ohio” 8:50-9:30

Mark E. Clasen, MD, PhD
Mary Budzak, MD, Wright State University, Dayton, Ohio
Robert Smith, MD, Kettering Medical Center, Dayton

“The ‘Safety-net’ Beneath the Safety-net: A Family Practice Residency Providing Free Health Care to the Totally Resourceless”
9:30-10:00

Margaret McCahill, MD, UC San Diego/St. Vincent de Paul Village Family Practice Residency Program
William A Norcross, MD

MORNING BREAK 10:00-10:15 AM

Session Moderator:

Charles E. Henley, MD, MPH, Chair, Department of Family Medicine, Oklahoma State University, College of Osteopathic Medicine

Introduction of the Odegaard Lecturer

William H. Burnett: “Memorializing Charles E. Odegaard: The Unappreciated Significance of his Life Work” 10:15-10:25

The Eighth Charles E. Odegaard Lecture

Norman B. Kahn, MD, American Academy of Family Physicians, Kansas City, Kansas 10:25 - 11:00

Gary LeRoy, MD, Wright State University, “Summary of the Conference Themes” 11:00-11:05

Discussion by the Conference as a Whole 11:05-11:15